

Services Were Held

For D. R. Janssen died June 27, 1955

Funeral services were held last Thursday for D. R. Janssen, who passed away at his home near Palmer on June 27 following a heart attack.

He had lived and farmed in this community since 1891, and owned and operated an implement business here for many years.

Services were held at the Methodist church with the Rev. Mrs. Ethel O. McAninch officiating. Burial was in Palmer cemetery.

Singing for the rites were Jack Dinsdale, Clinton Wegner, Mrs. Donald Rice and Mrs. Thomas Condell.

Pallbearers were Arthur O'Hare Thure Anderson, Lester Wages, Elmer Stone, Leonard Pelican and Ted Rutten.

Diedrich R. Janssen, son of Bruno and Margaret Janssen, was born in Oldenburg, Germany, June 23, 1880, and passed away at his farm-home near Palmer, Nebr., on June 27, 1955, at the age of 75 years, and 4 days.

He came to America in 1889 and settled in South Dakota, moving to Palmer vicinity in 1891.

He was married February 19, 1942 to Birdia M. Knapp.

Besides his wife, he is survived by his two sisters, Mrs. Anna Dankert of Palmer and Mrs. Martha Bressler of Windom, Minn., and many nieces and nephews.
